

Ian Manson

Mobile: 0419 818 252

EXPERTISE

- Information Security Assessment, Planning and Reviews
- Strategic Planning of Computer and Network Services
- Server and Desktop Architecture Specification
- Business Continuity Planning and Disaster Recovery
- Software Development
- Service Level Development

EXPERIENCE

Ian has a background in Information Systems over thirty five years ranging from software development through to senior management responsibilities within a banking environment including the last fifteen years in Information Technology and Information Security consulting.

Information Security specialist roles include vulnerability assessments and configuration compliance assessments against industry and vendor standards to support IT Assurance reporting to Executive Management.

Recent experience also includes IT Assurance and Advisory roles as a technical specialist in Internal and External IT Audit support.

Ian has experience in compliance documentation and assessment, large scale network design and deployment, server and applications platform capacity planning and deployment architectures, as well as integration of platforms and network security into card payment processing environments in accordance with Payments Card Industry requirements (PCI-DSS).

His expertise includes information security assessment, planning and reviews; strategic planning and implementation of computer and network services; server and desktop architecture specification; applications and infrastructure systems projects; Business Continuity Planning / Disaster Recovery Planning; service level development and review and information systems management.

QUALIFICATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

- Bachelor of Science (Computer Science), University of Adelaide
- Certified Information Systems Auditor
- Certified Information Security Manager
- Member, Project Management Institute